Events

Formal, Corporate, or Interactive: Meetings & Events USA creates the environment and manages the details to make your event a resounding success! Here we present just a sample of our work:

Major Impact, International Audience

A 100-year celebration of a multinational organization with attendees from around the globe. Held at Chicago's Field Museum of Natural History, this event included creative lighting, decoration, video and imaginative food to appeal to the international crowd.

Classic Holiday Party

People love a classic! Warm, inviting company holiday party that appealed to employees and clients alike and set the tone for the season.

Company Celebration Across Departments

Annual company party with dramatically different themes each year. This event took its cue from the "Age of Aquarius" and the interactive elements made for a lively, fun gathering.
